D.D.G.M. PATTERSON AT MASONIC MEETING

AT BLAIRMORE

Making his official visit to Rocky Mountain Lodge at Blairmore, R. E. Patterson, district grand master, was accompanied by the following on Tuesday evening: Mayor G. R. Davis, Charles S. Reach, S. R. Pederson, H. T. Halliwell, Ted Thall, Robert Toogood, J. Webb, John Allen, and Geo. H. Seouglie.

Following the lodge meeting at which a third degree candidate was raised, a very appetizing luncheon was served in the lodge room, though the hour was late, about 2:45 a.m. Wednesday, when the party returned they felt it was well worth while as it proved a most enjoyable evening. —MacLeod Gazette.

BRITAIN PLANS TO HAVE EUROPE'S LARGEST SUSPENSION BRIDGE

Details were published on September 17th by the Ministry of Transport of a proposed new road bridge over the mouth of the Severn—Britain's largest river. With a centre span of 3,000 feet over the navigable waterway and two side spans of about 1,000 feet each the Severn Bridge will be the largest suspension bridge in Europe and will exceed the span of Oakland Bridge, San Francisco, 2,700 feet though coming 1200 feet short of the Golden Gate Bridge, San Francisco. The total span across the Severn will exceed by nearly 900 feet the span of the great bridge across Sydney harbor. The Severn Bridge will give shipping about 120 feet clearance at high water while the steel towers supporting the main cables and on concrete piers will rise to a height of 450 feet.

WORKERS PLAN

ENGLISH VILLAGE

The Daily Mirror reports that the workers of Miles Aircraft Limited of Reading in conference with departmental chiefs have prepared plans for a village to be built near the works ultimately to contain 600 houses. When plans are approved by the government the village will be built by a non-profit making housing trust. The famous United Kingdom architect, Professor Sir Charles Reilly, approached for advice, offered all the needed expert planning work himself. The village will be on the well known "Reilly plan" with houses grouped round a green with no intervening road. Among the labor saving amenities will be a communal hot water system and rubbish disposal service. As well as normal family houses there will be bachelor flats for unmarried workers and smaller houses for elderly couples.

A chicken supper, sponsored by the ladies of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church, Cowley, was held in N. Papp's hall on Wednesday evening, October 16th, with a large crowd attending. The tombola prizes were won by: M. A. Perceval, cedar chest; George Z. Heppner, bed spread, and Mary Duchesne, pair of bed sheets. The evening was rounded out with a well attended dance.

Ronald McNeil of the Cowley airport has returned from a holiday trip to Atlatz, Saskatchewan, this time bringing a bride back with him.

St. Aidan's Anglican church, Cowley, was painstakingly decorated with sheaves of grain, garden vegetables, and both potted and garden flowers when the Harvest Home services were observed here on Sunday morning last. Bishop Ragg, of Calgary, assisted by Rev. Mr. Clarke and his son Ben Ragg was in charge. At this meeting ladies fund-raiser were continued for the church, namely Mrs. and Mrs. S. Burwell, Betty Burwell, Miss Doris Musgrave, Willie Musgrave, Miss Isobel Turner, Miss Joice Burn, Leona Welsh and Jimmie Brockwell. Following the meeting, the church members repaired to the parish room where a delicious luncheon was served. A large congregation was in attendance.

UNITED KINGDOM

FIRM CLAIMS THE PERFECT STOCKING

A United Kingdom firm claims to have produced the perfect stocking: fully fashioned, silk, and completely ladderless. Miss Caroline Haskins, chairman of the government hosiery working party which recently published its report, describes these stockings as "very very good." She says, "I could not tell the difference between them and pure silk fully fashioned stockings made in the ordinary way. I satisfied myself that they were really ladderproof and I think it is a tremendous development in the hosiery industry." Production at present is only in the experimental stage and it cannot be stated when the stockings are likely to be on the market. The firm took out a patent for them in 1939 but the war held up research and production.

Social security is robbing the poor for benefit of the lazy.

The current issue of Maclean's magazine brings home memories in the following item: When the big money came for one war-lonesome mother in Blairmore, Alta.—two sons returning late from overseas—one of those family m-x-ups saw mother rushing off to the city to meet them while the veterans shipped straight for home. Mother was heartbroken at the thought of their being greeted by an empty house instead of the warm reception she had planned, then hurried back to Blairmore to find a heartless placard on the front door—"Welcome home, Ma."

BLAIRMORE ELKS HONOR PATROL TEAM

Wednesday evening, 79 Elks gathered at the lodge hall to honor the Patrol Team of Blairmore Lodge No. 16, which won the Roy Pendray shield for three successive years.

The evening's festivities featured a turkey and potato salad supper, and refreshment. Highlight of the evening was a showing of a film by W. C. Males taken at Red Deer in June of the Calgary and Blairmore patrol teams in action.

Personnel of the Blairmore Patrol for the three years are as follows:

1944—Sgt. A. Bourne, F. McKay, P. Kroll, C. Larbalester, G. Manique, M. Aschacher, C. Lane, F. Pozzi, B. Bofo, F. Laney, S. Heggell.
1945—Sgt. A. Bourne, F. McKay, P. Kroll, C. Larbalester, G. Manique, Alex. McKay, A. Decoux, F. Paul, F. Pozzi, C. Lane, R. C. Old.

1946—Sgt. A. Bourne, F. McKay, P. Kroll, A. Decoux, Alex. McKay, F. Paul, W. Price, W. Cousins, A. Avoldo, J. Pratt, J. Cyr.

At the conclusion of the banquet, C. M. Larbalester, in behalf of those present, presented A. R. Bourne with a Parker "51" pen and pencil set. Art has been patrol sergeant and under his training the patrol team has been able to make such a creditable showing.

IS TWO ACRES TOO MUCH?

It's a sound idea to provide veterans with small holdings that would enable them to develop part-time gardening or farming in connection with an urban job, says The Financial Post, but Veterans Land Act administrators would have saved themselves a lot of trouble and embarrassment had they not wobbled from their original policy of granting two acres and then referring it to the courts. They cut the original grant to half an acre, then recently restored it.

"Perhaps a two-acre lot was too much," speculates The Post. "It would be for certain intensive types of gardening, but probably not enough if the veteran wanted to keep some live stock or have an orchard. Much would depend, too, on the location. Near some of the big centres two acres of land costs a lot of money, near a small town no more than a regular city lot. And the veteran himself would be a factor. Some who really like to garden might be able to handle two acres in their spare time and keep it tidy. Others might let it degenerate into an eyesore and a menace, a breeding ground for weeds and diseases to plague the neighbors."

Here's a gem of wisdom from the Montreal Transcript:

"If you get up earlier in the morning than your neighbor," said the town philosopher, "and work harder and more closely and stay up later planning how to make more money than your neighbor, and burn the midnight oil planning how to get ahead of him while he was sleeping, not only will you leave more money when you die than he will, but you will leave a darn sight sooner."

Two women were heard chatting in a Coleman beauty parlor. "Gracious, I have not seen you in seven years. You look much older," one commented. "I do not believe I would have known you either were it not for the coat and hat," the other retorted.

ADDRESS YOUR MAIL TO BOX NUMBER OR GENERAL DELIVERY

You probably never considered a Post Office Box number as a necessary part of the address, but it is so important that its omission seriously hinders the work of the office, delays the sorting and may result in your mail being misdelivered.

On a recent inspection, it was found that a very large percentage of mail apparently intended for delivery through the Boxes, had the Box Number omitted; that is, the most essential detail in the address was missing.

When you realize that there may be hundreds of boxes, each with a separate number to which mail has to be sorted quickly and accurately, you will easily understand the reason why the box number should always be included in the address.

All mail matter should bear one of two addresses, either it is intended for delivery through the General Delivery or through a Box. If, however, the box number is omitted, there is no address and the alternative is for the mail to be sorted to the General Delivery.

If you do not wish this to happen to your mail will you please do your part by making it a regular practice to show the POST OFFICE BOX NUMBER as an integral part of the address on all letters written by you as ask your correspondents to use the Post Office Box Number when replying to you. This will greatly help the staff of your post office to give you the efficient and speedy service to which you are entitled and which it is their desire and aim to achieve.

We feel sure that we can count upon your fullest co-operation and support in this appeal for the correct addressing of your mail.

"Did my medicine do any good, Mrs. Jones?"

"A wonderful remedy, doctor. I took three spoonfuls for my cough, rubbed three into my knees for rheumatism and the rest I used to clean the silver."

ARCHIE MACCORKINDALE

Here at the Prairie Region's most famous street corner, Portage and Main, Winnipeg, is Archie Maccorkindale, late of Vancouver, now CBC drama producer for the Prairies. This is said to be the coldest street corner in the world, but Archie seems comfortable enough in the bright sunshine of a Manitoba September.

BACKACHE The Plague of Outdoor Men

The outdoor man, whether he be farmer, truck driver, or railway operator, is often subject to backache. This may be the result of exposure to cold and dampness or the result of strain from the jolting and bumping of the vehicle he rides.

To many people, women as well as men, it would be great to be free of backache—one of the most common and annoying of ailments. And here is how you may be relieved of backache and other symptoms of poison in the blood.

The treatment suggested in Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills. By reason of their stimulating action on both the liver and kidneys, you have two chances to one of getting relief from your backache by using Dr. Chase's Pills. The torpid liver is aroused to action, the kidneys are stimulated and consequently these organs help to purify the blood of the poisonous impurities which bring pains and aches and tired feelings.

Keep regular and keep well by using Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills. 36c a box.

Canada's Forest Wealth

CANADA WAS ONE of the few fortunate countries which emerged from the war with material resources undamaged by bombs or other weapons of devastation. Consequently, in company with the United States and the South American countries, we have endeavored to contribute as much material as possible to those nations whose fields and factories were damaged or destroyed during the war. Food has been probably our most important export and much emphasis has been placed on the need for Canadian wheat and other food products abroad. Food is undoubtedly of the greatest importance there at the present time, but we are sometimes reminded that they have also a housing problem, much more grave than that which we face here, because of the fact that many thousands of their pre-war homes were partially or totally destroyed.

World Shortage Is Predicted

The task of reconstruction is an enormous one, not only from the point of view of housing, but in the rebuilding of railways and other essential facilities. Much of this reconstruction will depend on an adequate supply of lumber, as do the building programmes now being commenced on this continent. However, a study of the world lumber supply, made during the past year by the United Nations' Food and Agriculture Organization, has shown that there is a serious shortage which will be felt soon. It has been found that Europe, the Middle East and the Far East have emerged from the war with greatly depleted lumber supplies, while in the United States lumber stocks have reached an all-time low. Britain's situation in this respect is described as even more serious. Canada on the other hand was found to be one of the few countries whose forestry is "in fair condition."

Production To Be Increased

Reasons for the shortage were given by Sir John Boyd Orr, F.A.O., director-general, as "deforestation, inadequate forest management, failure to develop mature forests, incomplete utilization and insufficient technical personnel." It must also be recognized that during the war the need for wood increased greatly and many more trees were cut than would be the case in normal times. Attention is now being directed to increasing the production of Canadian forests. In this connection the F.A.O. report says: "Large programs of work on Canadian forest improvement and rehabilitation projects are now being started. These are expected to lay the ground work for more orderly management and better protection of the forests in future; at the same time they should provide useful employment for large numbers of people during the period of transition from a wartime to a peacetime economy." From this report, it appears that the lumbering industry may become increasingly important both to Canada and to those countries who will look to her for supplies of this essential product.

Study For Scientists

Giant Spider Found in Buddhist Temple Has Human-Like Face

The newspaper Hsin Sheng Pao said that a spider with a human-like face and as big as an apple, although it was just hatched, had been found in a Buddhist temple near Peiping.

The spider, said Hsin Sheng Pao, has a white face with eyebrows, a nose and a mouth. The rest of it is black and it has eight legs. A priest found the spider in a jar so scientists could study it.

Less than 100 years ago the passenger pigeon was the most prevalent bird in all North America. The last specimen died in the Cincinnati zoo on Sept. 1, 1914, and is now mounted in the Smithsonian Institution.

Price Control And Rationing Information

Q—I am holding some temporary ration coupons with a "Beaver" stamped on them. Are these "Beaver" coupons still valid for the purchase of rationed commodities?

A.—Consumers holding unused "Beaver" coupons may, on application to a Local Ration Board, have them exchanged for the newly-issued "Buffalo" coupons. The "Beaver" coupons, unnumbered and bearing a beaver design, which are used for the purchase of meat, sugar, preserves and butter, expire on October 31. "Beaver" coupons for evaporated milk, only, will continue to be valid.

Q—I believe that some meat and butter coupons are being declared invalid the end of October. Will you list for me the coupons which will no longer be valid after October 31.

A.—Meat coupons C-1 to C-4, in the No. 5 ration book and M-51 to M-55 in the new book, and butter coupons R-18 to R-21 in the old book and B-20 to B-23 in the new, will become invalid for the purchase of these commodities after October 31.

Q.—Have hairnets been removed from the price ceiling regulations? The other day I was able to purchase a hairnet and noticed that the price had gone up several cents.

A.—Hairnets are still under the ceiling, but the subsidy on imported hairnets has been removed and the price has therefore increased.

Q.—Has the price of turkeys grade "A" been increased?

A.—The Prices Board has announced that effective September 3 maximum wholesale prices for Grade "A" turkeys in all parts of Canada will be 2½ cents a pound above the prices in effect during the 1945 packing period—November and December. These prices will apply throughout the year.

Please send your questions or your request for the pamphlet "Consumer's News" or the Blue Book in which you keep track of your selling prices, mentioning the name of this paper to the nearest Wartime Prices and Trade Board office in your province.

SMILE AWHILE

One of the guests at a night wedding approached a man who was very well dressed and who appeared somewhat depressed. "Garden suit," asked the guest, "but you do groom?" "No suit, I ain't," replied the man with a sorrowful expression. "If I was eliminated in the deal—think."

I wish that I could make a rule That every much man go to school And learn from some experienced mole To make a less conspicuous hole.

Two Irishmen were trying to remove a piece of rock lying in the roadway when an old lady passing stopped and watched them. Then she said: "Men, why not try blasting it?"

One of the men looked up and said: "Lady, we have tried every swear word we know, and yet we cannot move it."

"Don't you think a man has more sense after he's married?" "Yes, but it doesn't do him any good then."

The visitor watched a very little girl pull a very big weed from her garden. "You must be pretty strong to pull out such a big weed," he remarked.

"Yes," agreed the youngster, "and don't forget the whole world was pulling on the other side."

Wife (inspecting new home): "How many closets are there, dear?" Husband: "I've counted five."

"That isn't enough. You'll want one for your things, won't you?"

The beautiful young widow simply wouldn't be comforted after two days' mourning although scores offered sympathy plus advice.

Finally the beautiful young widow found voice: "I'm not givin' 'bout myself," she said. "It's these seven children I feel sorry 'bout—'avin' to be reared by a step-daddy."

"What is a debtor?" "A man who owes money." "And what is a creditor?" "A man who thinks he's going to get it back."

"Why, sometimes I'm taken for my own daughter." "Nonsense! You don't look old enough to have a daughter so old."

Young and inexperienced father (looking at triplets the nurse had just brought out): "We'll take the one in the middle."

Race Track Cameras Are Becoming A Commonplace Thing

At Races

The camera, in racing, like the automobile in everyday life, apparently is here to stay. It's a far cry from the days when the decision was left entirely to the vision of the placing judges. Back in 1926 a total of seven dead heats, all for win, was the highest from 1910 through 1934. A dead heat for any of the other placings was unheard of in those years. No less than five different years there was only a single dead heat signal flashed at all tracks and it made page one whenever it happened. All of which tends to prove the honest pair of eyes can't compete with the camera.

The amount of money lost by bettors from 1910 up until the first camera made its appearance in 1935 staggers the imagination. Horsemen, too, were losers. Instead of sharing in first money, or for any of the other positions as now, they received the next lesser amount, when it was up to the judges.

The camera finish has become as commonplace as the starting gate. Next on the list of mechanical aids for the tracks is the camera which takes a picture of every inch of the race. It takes the stewards. After viewing the film, they can make their decisions.

Recipe For Longevity

Nonegarian Says Water And Eggs Are The Secret For Long Life

OTTAWA. — Every nonegarian has his own secret of long life, and with Sgt. Daniel Byrd Hoskins Power, 93-year-old veteran of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston, it's water.

The Company — oldest military organization on the continent—celebrated its annual convention in Ottawa recently.

The erect, sprightly, oldest member of this oldest Company, who makes a point of doing everything his fellow-members do, says water—and eggs—are the secret of long life.

"It's easy," he told newsmen. "I just drink lots of water. I have hot water in the morning, cold water at noon, and hot water before I go to bed at night. Water is nature's own medicine. It beats anything the doctors have and works wonder."

HELPING SHORTAGE

Aluminum nails, up to four inches in length, now are being produced to help in the nail shortage. Contrary to what one would expect, they are said to have greater shearing strength than steel nails. Furthermore, more, they're much easier to carry. A keg of aluminum nails weigh only about 34 pounds in comparison with the 130-pound keg of steel nails. And there is not much difference in cost.

Industry Has Ambitious Plan For This Year

OTTAWA.—Canadian businessmen plan to spend $1,170,000,000 this year on new construction, machinery and on repairs and maintenance, the reconstruction department disclosed in a review of the investment intentions of Canadian industry.

The report, based on results of a survey which obtained estimates from 13,450 business establishments of the expenditures they expected to make during 1946 on capital goods, repairs and maintenance, supplements a previous review issued last June.

It listed the following amounts, by industries, which business enterprises plan to spend on new physical durable assets and on repairs and maintenance: manufacturing, $543,000,000; mining, $42,000,000; wood operations, $13,000,000; banking, $5,000,000; public utilities (including central electric stations, telephones, air, water, rail and motor transportation), $307,000,000.

Of the $1,170,000,000 total, 25 per cent. was to be spent on new construction, 35 per cent. on purchase of new machinery and equipment, 16 per cent. on repair of buildings and other structures and 24 per cent. on repair of machinery and equipment.

Of the total planned expenditure of $543,000,000 in manufacturing, more than one-half or 53.5 per cent. of the outlay was to be made in Ontario, 8.5 per cent. in British Columbia and five per cent. in the prairie provinces.

Examination of these expenditures according to major industrial cities showed Vancouver fourth in the list with an outlay of $18,000,000 and Winnipeg fifth with $8,000,000.

However, with respect to investment plans indicated by the report, the department expects that as a result of shortages resulting from reconversion difficulties and from strikes, the actual realization will fall considerably short of original intentions.

TROOP REMOVAL

Premier of New Indian Government Demands Withdrawal of British Troops.—Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, premier of the new Indian government, has demanded immediate withdrawal of British troops from India, an exchange telegraph agency dispatch from New Delhi reported.

"It was our policy before taking office and it is our policy now to have British troops withdrawn from India immediately or, at any rate, with the greatest possible speed," Nehru said in an official statement.

Nehru said he was issuing the statement in connection with Earl Winterton's question at the Conservative party conference at Blackpool: "Why is Pandit Nehru silent?"

OUTSTANDING GAIN

Shown in Report Covering Grain Crop Harvested in Europe.—The world's wheat crop in 1946 is likely to approximate 5,900,000,000 bushels, the largest since 1940, the United States department of agriculture reported.

A crop of that size, however, will be slightly below the 1935-39 average.

The report said the most outstanding gain over last year's crop "is noted in the European total now placed at 1,260,000,000 bushels larger than in 1945." The British Isles, which have suffered bad weather, were the only exception noted in the European crop improvement.

WILL HELP SOME

WASHINGTON.—The government banned the construction of swimming pools, board walks, roller-coasters, drive-in theatres, parking lots, cement tennis courts, and walls and fences of wood, brick or concrete when any of these projects costs more than $200, as a move to aid the housing program.

BEST TEST SITE

CANBERRA.—Britain's proposed rocket-testing site in central Australia is the only one in the world which would give such long firing ranges, a government official said. In certain directions a distance of 3,000 miles can be obtained. Observation posts would be constructed at intervals of 100 miles in the remote and sparsely populated site.

SERVICES HELD

STEPHENVILLE, N.B.—Burial services for the 39 victims of the crash of an American overseas airlines plane were held with Protestant, Catholic and Jewish clergymen conducting communal services while flying over the scene of the wreck on Hale Hills, 10 miles from this south-western Newfoundland village.

BACK IN OTTAWA

OTTAWA.—Viscount Alexander, Governor-General, and Viscountess Alexander have returned to government house after visiting the Maritimes, Toronto and Montreal. At Montreal, Viscount Alexander saw his first Canadian football game, watching McGill defeat Queen's 19-12 in an intercollegiate match.

POWER PROGRAM

National Farmers Union in Britain Seek Approval Of Scheme For Electrification

LONDON.—The National Farmers Union, major organization of British farmers, will seek approval of a £72,000,000 ($218,000,000) program of rural electrification to help keep present workers on the land and attract new ones.

The N.F.U. blamed poor response to a government training scheme for new farmers on rural housing conditions.

The proposed five-year program would carry electricity to 150,000 holdings and its completion will mean the majority of farms will have electricity.

It is the experience of thousands of farmers that unless they can offer to potential employees the amenities that are today taken for granted in urban centres of population (and which are completely non-existent in large areas of the countryside) they cannot obtain or retain the type of labour which the industry requires, said the N.F.U. statement.

BUYING SHIPS

Report Says Russia Likely To Purchase Fifty From Canada

VANCOUVER.—Shipping circles in Vancouver reported that Russia is seeking to purchase any undesirable number of merchant vessels of the Dominion government's park line now under charter to Britain and it is possible 50 may be sold to the Soviet next year.

These sources said that 126 of the wartime park fleet of 176 vessels already have been disposed of but the other 50 will not be available to prospective new owners because of present charter.

The Soviet was reported also seeking to buy 96 American ships and was said to have opened unofficial negotiations for part of the Japanese fishing fleet which the industry is building a strong merchant marine.

WINTER TRAFFIC

Alaska Highway Now In Perfect Condition Will Be Kept Open

NEW YORK.—The Alaska highway, now open to restricted civilian traffic, will be kept open all winter by the Royal Canadian Engineers, Hamilton Wright, Jr., who directed a recent Dominion photographic expedition over the highway, said here.

Wright said the highway now is in "perfect" condition, with the Canadian army keeping 18 maintenance camps about 50 miles apart along the route.

NEW INSTRUMENT

Based On Radar In Giving Good Results In B.C. Mineral Fields

VANCOUVER.—Radar may find an important peacetime use in the mineral fields of British Columbia.

The B.C. chamber of mines reported that local prospectors were experimenting with an instrument "based on radar" with which it is hoped to locate valuable ore bodies. Preliminary tests are said to have produced "good results."

Details of the instrument were not known.

FLYING TOO LOW

Plane Which Crashed Into School In Holland Killed Eight Boys

APPELDOORN, Holland.—A military plane flown low over the home of the pilot's mother crashed into the roof of a nearby school, killing the pilot and eight school boys and seriously injuring at least two others.

The pilot's mother, a witness, died of a heart attack.

The plane was a single-seater Firefly. It struck a school hall in which about 25 boys were doing gymnastics.

MEMORIAL TO GURKHAS

MANDALAY, Burma.—In memory of the men of the 44th Gurkha Rifles who lost their lives in the attack on Mandalay Hill during the war, the Holy Hermit of Mandalay Hill, Rev. U. Khanti, is placing a memorial tablet, in a pagoda on the summit of the hill, which is the centre of the Buddhist faith in Burma.

FOR ONE ISSUE

SWIFT CURRENT.—A new staff will take over the Swift Current Sun, a local weekly newspaper, for one issue in December. A novelty project is being undertaken at that time, when a complete staff of collegiate students will write, print, and market the issue.

GIFT FOR CHIEF SCOUT

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask.—An Indian hammer head and an Indian pipe of peace were presented to Lord Rowallan, chief scout of the British Commonwealth and empire, at a public rally attended by scouts and cubs from many northern Saskatchewan points.

DECLARED OBSOLETE

HALIFAX.—The Canadian army water transport vessel General Derry cleared from here with four box-cars loaded of ammunition to be dumped at sea. Army authorities said the ammunition, dated 1939, was collected from ammunition dumps across Canada and brought here for disposal.

Royal Mint is Busy Producing Service Medals

OTTAWA.—Making medals has become big business since the war ended with something like 3,000,000 slated for eventual distribution to members of the Canadian forces.

At the moment the royal mint is producing Canadian Volunteer Service medals at the rate of 2,000 a day but that will be increased as more machine tools and presses become available. Until there is a stock of medals on hand the services are not receiving applications for the decorations.

Present plans are to strike more than 1,000,000 war medals which will go to all members of the forces, about 1,000,000 Canadian Volunteer Service medals and about the same number of a variety of other decorations.

The R.C.A.F. has undertaken supervision of the medal production for the three services and it is a job which runs into a lot of material as well as labor. The volunteer medals, for example, will use 166,000 yards of ribbon and 25 miles of silver wire for the suspension units.

On one side of the C.V.S.M. is the Canadian coat of arms; on the other a sailor, a soldier, a pilot, members of the C.W.A.C., W.R.C.N.S., and R.C.A.F. women's division and a nursing sister in marching order.

Estimates are that apart from the C.V.S.M. and the War Medal there will be 745,000 decorations to the army; 164,000 to the R.C.A.F., 84,500 to the navy and 8,000 to the merchant navy. These will be made up of: 1939-45 Star, 287,500; Atlantic Star, 40,000; Albrecht Europe Star, 12,000; France and Germany Star, 185,000; Italy Star, 107,000; Africa Star, 12,000; Burma Star, 5,500; Pacific Star, 5,500, and Defence Medal 345,000.

NO CHANGE SEEN

Canadians Cannot Expect More Or Better Bacon For Some Months

OTTAWA.—Agriculture department sources said there was little prospect, for some months at least, of improvement in the quantity and quality of bacon being sold for home consumption.

They pointed out that Canada, because of her declining hog production, was having trouble meeting her contract to supply Britain with 185,000 pounds of bacon this year and likely would experience similar difficulty in 1947.

NOT ENCOURAGING

Greater Shortage in Cotton Garments Seen By Prices Board

OTTAWA.—Canada's supply prospects in cotton textiles—that means shirts, shorts and pyjamas—are less favorable now than they were in the first half of 1946 and indications are that they will get worse before they get better.

That's the picture as the prices board, which has the task of coping with shortages, sees it and it means that there probably will be a growing shortage in cotton garments.

The board traces this situation to longer United States allocations of cotton textile and industrial disputes which have reduced the output of Canadian textile plants.

While the immediate outlook in discouraging the board has a happy note for the future. It says the global textile picture gives "every indication of an improvement which will take effect early in 1947" and expresses the hope imports of cotton from Britain "may be somewhat" better by that time.

WILL BE WITNESS

Colonel Crawford To Testify Against Japanese War Crimes in Hong Kong

OTTAWA.—Lt.-Col. J. N. B. Crawford, 40, of Winnipeg and Ottawa, is on his way to Hong Kong for a second time but this time he knows just what awaits him: He will testify against the Japanese who perpetrated cruelties upon Canadians and other Allied prisoners of war after the fall of Hong Kong in December, 1941.

Senior medical officer with the Canadian force that was wiped out at that brief battle, he was a prisoner of the Japanese until the end of the war. From his experiences, he will testify in war crimes trials due late this month in the Chinese city.

Sen. Crawford, the former Maude Hopper of Arrol, Sask., and also a graduate of the University of Manitoba, lives in Ottawa with his young son and daughter.

Progress Now Being Made In Housing Scheme

OTTAWA.—Canada's housing construction target of 60,000 units in the year 1946-47 is within range but will fall short of urgent needs, it was disclosed in a reconstruction department survey of housing manpower and material requirements.

The survey includes an estimate of an immediate deficit of 180,000 units in the spring of 1947 and reversion between 47 and 62 per cent. from 1939 to 1945, and further, there is little likelihood of an early reduction.

The present inquiry brings out the fact that a housing target of 60,000 units during 1946-47 is well within the productive capacity of this country. Reconstruction Minister Howe said in an introduction to the report.

"In the years to come even larger housing programs should be within our reach. The success of a housing program in the transition period depends in the main on the co-ordinated effort of management and labor in the construction industry and the industries that supply needed building materials."

The target of 60,000 units compared with an estimated 48,000 homes constructed in 1945 and an average of 32,000 in urban centres in the years 1924-39.

The department attributed higher costs to increases in the price of building material and in wages and to lowered efficiency in the house building industry as a result of the shortage of skilled workers.

"Not until efficiency in building operations increases over present levels in the industry will the result of war-inflated building costs be expected. But part of such decline might be offset in the immediate future by a further rise in prices of building materials and wage rates paid to construction workers."

Help Shortage Causes Delay In Health Plan

OTTAWA.—Canada has planned a new health deal for Indians and Eskimos, but like nearly everything else the scheme, is being delayed by shortage of help and building materials.

Doctors and nurses with a yearning for the wide-open spaces and a bit of adventure, to boot may answer the call of the north and help to man hospitals and serve on reserves.

This is the word from Dr. P. E. Moore, superintendent of Indian health services, who reviewed in an interview the prospects of better health services for Canada's 127,000 Indians and 7,700 Eskimos.

Dr. Moore said that "though neither law nor treaty obligated the government," Canada had increased expenditures for maintenance of such health services from $3,801 in 1939 to $4,103,380 for the fiscal year 1946-47.

But despite the increased appropriation the government's hospital expansion program was at a standstill for lack of trained personnel. A "limited response" had been received in advertisements seeking nurses. More than 70 still were needed, as well as a few hardy characters to serve on northern reserves.

Though the health service frequently went badly injured Indians and Eskimos from the hinterland to receive special treatment in southern zones, it did not operate an air ambulance—only Saskatchewan's health department had this service. Instead it utilized commercial and R.C.A.F. airplanes for individual "mercy flights".

The Indian branch kept tab on the health of 11,000 Indians and Eskimos scattered through the Northwest Territories and eastern Arctic by despatching doctors to pull teeth, administer diphtheria toxoid, whooping cough vaccine and generally assist the seven doctors who normally cared for their needs.

For the last 20 years the R.M.S. Nascopie, chartered by the Hudson Bay Company made annual trips to the eastern Arctic carrying medical supplies and personnel. This year the medical party was augmented by an X-ray machine and technician. By examining 1,500 natives they expected to give the health department a picture of the present tuberculosis situation.

HAD GOOD SEASON

PRINCE ALBERT.—All previous records were shattered by the season's entries into Prince Albert National Park, Bert Knight, superintendent, reported. From May 1 to Sept. 30, 31,474 persons visited the park in the corresponding period last year the total was 18,585.

HOLD-UP MEN GET 10 YEARS—Three men who held-up the Nipawin, Sask., branch of the Bank of Montreal at gun-point and escaped with $39,000, were sentenced at Prince Albert, Sask., to 10 years. The third man, Peter Minokey, 24, is not shown.

Advance inquiries at branches of chartered banks, investment dealers and brokerage houses about purchases of Canada Savings Bonds first offered for sale on October 15 indicate a strong desire by Canadians to continue war-time Victory Loan and War Savings Stamps saving habits. Canada Savings Bonds national headquarters reported this week.

Sales of war savings stamps and certificates have been terminated annual instalments, on Ninth Victory Loan purchases will have been completed by the end of the month. The Canada Savings Bonds, which bear 2.75 per cent interest and can be cashed at any time at face value, offer a means of continuing the savings habit.

Just returned from the food and agriculture organization conference in Copenhagen, H. H. Hannam, president and managing director of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, has written in a letter on Canada Savings Bonds addressed to Graham F. Towers, governor of the Bank of Canada:

"During the war the Canadian people came to have great confidence in this type of investment, because of its bedrock security. Generally speaking, they will welcome the government's decision to continue to offer this form of security, one in which the ordinary citizen can readily participate.

"A feature of the new offering," appointed lover, "if you won't have said Mr. Hannam, "which will come, who will?"

most likely to farmers is the fact that the savings bond will be readily convertible into cash at 100 per cent of its value plus interest. Farmers who are in a position to put by a portion of their earnings each year should find the new bonds a very satisfactory form of investment for these savings.

It was pointed out at headquarters that since there are fewer sales men than in Victory Loan campaigns the initiative for the purchase of Canada Savings Bonds rests with individual Canadians. Facilities of chartered banks, investment and brokerage houses have been made available for bond purchase.

INCREASED CONTRIBUTIONS TO UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE FUND

A new high in figures for August contributions to the Unemployment Insurance Fund was announced today by Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, upon receipt of the monthly statement from the Unemployment Insurance Commission.

The employer-employee contributions for last August amounted to $6,168,316.63. These were the highest figures for any August to date and represent an increase of 15 per cent over the same month last year. It also means that contributions from this source showed an increase of $308,013.62 over the preceding month. This increase is particularly significant in view of the many contribution days lost due to strikes.

The August, 1946, benefit payments of $2,268,905.46 showed a decrease for the third consecutive month, although the payments are much higher than the $684,878.97 for the corresponding month last year. Disbursements for benefit payments for July, 1946, were $2,299,938.15.

The government's share in contributions for August amounted to $1,231,668.18, while the interest on investments and profit on sale of securities amounted to $587,800.06. These represent respective increase over July, 1946, of $60,662.71 and $18,89.03.

Showing an increase of $5,119,778.15 over the previous month, the balance in the Unemployment Insurance Fund as at August 31 was $393,424,172.99.

In a sad, hopeless voice the rejected suitor exclaimed: "Well, Susie, I suppose I'll never marry now."

"Oh silly boy," replied Susie, not a little flattered by the look of tragic yearning in his eyes, "just because I've turned you down it doesn't follow that other girls will do the same."

"Oh yes, it does," moaned the disappointed lover, "if you won't have said Mr. Hannam, "which will come, who will?"

TOMORROW NEVER COMES

Many an executive famous in the field of business has had a motto hanging on his office wall carrying the words "Do It Now."

Others for whom each day is crowded with work to be done make a practice of listing each item to be looked after during the day, and see to it that each listed item is ticked off before leaving their desks for the day.

Such defensive steps to defeat bugbear, "Procrastination," are found necessary by most men and women who realize that so often the duty put off until the morrow is never done.

For the average citizen in Canada, buying a Canada Savings Bond is a proposition much different than the purchase of a Victory Bond in war days. Because of the unprecedented size and energy of the sales organization behind Victory Bond issues, very few people in the Dominion were left to buy entirely on their own initiative. Sooner or later a salesman turned up at the office or at the home and placed an application before his prospects and extended his fountain pen for the signature. Salesmen will call on a number of

Teachers On The Spot

Children Permitted To Make Reports Of Their Teachers

LONDON.—Children at a Hampstead borough school in London have realized a dream long cherished by school children throughout the world—they are permitted to make end-of-term reports on their teachers.

Their reports are fully considered and acted upon by British school authorities.

Scholars and teachers in this school are known by their Christian names and there is no "Sir" or "Miss". If several pupils complain in their reports that "John gives too much dictation," the instructor is asked to improve his lessons.

The school is Burgess Hill. There is no headmaster. Responsibilities are shared and all staff teachers, cooks, housekeepers and cleaners are paid same salary, approximately $480 a year.

Naturally, the teachers make term-end reports on the children, but it is hard to know who learns the most from whom—the teachers or the children.

The three R's are compulsory, but otherwise children choose their own lessons.

Changed Quickly

The Second World War Made Big Difference To South Sea Islanders

CINCINNATI.—That South Sea Island paradises of the nineteenth-century romanticists is gone, says Dr. John Wesley Coulter, University of Cincinnati professor of geography and authority on the Pacific Islands.

Sweeping changes brought about by World War II in the American Geographical Society's Geographical Review.

Although South Sea Islanders have been influenced by Europeans and Americans for 150 years, the recent war in five years changed them more than in all time before, he points out.

"Whole villages were removed to make way for airplane fields and hangars," Dr. Coulter writes. "The economic life of the natives was transformed by an unprecedented influx of money which they generously paid out for souvenirs, laundry, and coconuts."

"Thousands of natives were recruited for labor battalions and received wages far above anything they had ever earned before. Natives trained as commandos will not be content to fit themselves into the composite of village life under chiefs who stayed at home."

SEEN FOR FIRST TIME
CHICAGO.—A dream came true for a 14-year-old Artesian, S.D., farm girl.

The child, Bette Goudy, has been blind since birth. Now she is able to see—only a little, but it was still seeing.

Bette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Goudy, brought the girl here for an operation. A cornea from a stillborn baby was transplanted to her right eyeball by Dr. Richard Peritt.

There has been little, if any, improvement in vision making in 300 years.

Democracy In Arctic

Greenland Wants To Have Governor And Council Elected By People

An independent democracy is in the making beyond the Arctic Circle, says the Scandinavian News.

Greenland, the world's largest island in which less than 20,000 persons live along the coastline of a territory which comprises nearly 850,000 square miles and Denmark's only remaining colony, is approaching the age of majority.

The Greenlanders now want to have one governor and one central council to be elected directly by the people. This would have the effect of diminishing influence of the Danish officials.

SALES MUCH HIGHER

Canadians Spent More Of Wartime Savings During August This Year

Thirty housewives, who saved their pin money during the war, spent a lot of it last August on radios and household goods, a report by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics has disclosed.

An analysis of department store sales in Canada during that month showed a 24 per cent. rise over July, and a 27 per cent. increase compared with the corresponding month last year.

Radios, musical instruments and supplies led all departments with an increase of 185 per cent. over August, 1945. Sales of household appliances and electrical supplies were nearly 90 per cent. higher; hardware and kitchen utensils, 59 per cent.; furniture and home furnishings, 34.5 and 33 per cent. respectively.

Rural housewives, too, went shopping during August, the report showed. However, those in Western Canada spent more money than the Easterners.

In country general stores the margin of increase in sales was somewhat wider in Western than in Eastern Canada. In Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia the increase was more than 20 per cent. Manitoba stores had a sales gain of 17 per cent.

Sales in Ontario's country general stores were 19 per cent. higher. Quebec and the Maritime Provinces marked gains of 14 and 15 per cent. respectively.

London's Underground

Trains Are Painted Vivid Red And Interior Is Bright Again

Londoners like to think their underground railway system one of the transportation world's wonders but in the stress of war and the early peace it became as dingy and unattractive as a utility work dress.

Now the trains that scuttle about the network of underground lines beneath the metropolis and take surprisingly long surface jaunts into the green countryside, are flamboyantly red again, the stations have been repainted, and the seat covers no longer look like old potato sacks but have bright designs.

The London Passenger Transport Board, with the task of moving nearly 10,000,000 passengers daily, thus demonstrates it is more alert than the firms who purchase space for their advertising cards on the walls of underground coaches; often these yellowed cards are in contrast to shiny walls and often they advertise products to be available "after the war".

House In London Where Disraeli Lived Is Offered For Sale

LONDON.—The last home of Disraeli, famous Victorian British prime minister, now no more than an empty shell—has been placed on sale.

Outside of the house at No. 19 Curzon street crowds waited in 1881 for the news of the passing of one of the greatest figures of Victorian England.

The Curzon street mansion was only one of Disraeli's London homes. After the death of his wife in 1875, he lived in No. 2 Whitehall Gardens and prior to that he lived in his wife's home at 93 Park Lane.

SOME of the folks at Gloverville were certain that a miracle had happened to Miss Sadie. Others claimed that she had taken some wonderful medicine. Still others thought the old man that stayed only one night at her house was a famous doctor travelling in disguise.

Every one had his own private opinion about what cured Miss Sadie and got her out of the bed in which she had spent most of her time for the past three years. But none of them guessed the truth.

When Miss Sadie—her real name was Mrs. Horace Manners—lost her husband and two children in the automobile wreck she lost all her faith and desire to live. Though most people didn't know it her illness was largely mental. She didn't want to get well.

"There's nothing left for me," she'd said. "When Horace and the children were taken from me life lost its meaning. I didn't care to live, though I must until I die."

And the bitterness of her mind seemed to overtake her body leaving her no strength. She made no effort to rebuild her life, to regain her strength. A hired man who lived on the place and cooked for her kept up the little portion of the farm that she retained, but she took no interest in it.

Her old friends who stopped coming to see her could not be blamed. It was obvious in her grief and loss of faith that she did not want them. The only people who ever came to see her were the curious ones who carried away strange tales about how she kept to her bed, spoke crossly and glared at them like they were demons.

Slowly people began to suspect she was going crazy.

Then one day when the hired man had gone to town and she was all alone, there appeared at her door an old man. He was dressed in tattered clothes and he had not shaved for many days. His knock on the door was feeble and had she been sleeping she would not have heard it.

The window by her bed opened on to the front porch and she could see him there knocking. She was not frightened, because she knew he was feeble looking. But she was irritated that he should disturb her.

"What is it?" she asked crossly through the half open window.

"I am hungry," said the old man, "and very tired. If you will only give me a little food and let me rest—"

She felt angrier than before. A beggar at her doorstep disturbing her by asking for food instead of working.

"Go on away from here," she said, waving him off with her hand. "Go on! Get off my porch and property!"

There was a pitiful look in the old man's eyes as though the world had disowned him. As he turned to leave he opened his thin grey lips then seemed to decide against it.

He walked slowly back across the porch and as he reached the steps he suddenly collapsed and rolled down them to the walk.

Inside the house Miss Sadie saw the little old man as he fell to the ground and her heart rose in her throat. For the first time she forgot her own loneliness and bitterness. A new strength seemed to rise in her. For only a minute she hesitated. Then she grabbed her robe, slipped quickly into her shoes and started for the door. Her movements were slow at first but as she thought of the little old man she forgot her weakness and moved rapidly to the yard.

He was unconscious when she reached him and breathing heavily. She lifted his small head from his hard walk and compassion wilted her heart. She had done this to him by ordering him away.

She lifted his body in her arms. Even though he was frail, she was weak and stumbled as she went towards the house with him.

"Poor little old man," she repeated over and over.

His only answer was heavy breathing as though he were having difficulty getting his breath.

Later when she had undressed him and put his withered body between clean white sheets, she hurried to the kitchen to prepare some chicken broth. It was the first time in three years that she had fixed food and she found pleasure in it. When she returned with a bowl of the steaming beverage he had regained consciousness. She smiled at him and moved swiftly to his side.

"There now," she said, "you're going to be all right. You must not have eaten in a long while. This broth will do you up."

"No," he said in a small voice. "No I haven't eaten in a long time. I did not want to beg, but—"

His voice faded away as he tried to say and she saw it was too much for him.

"No more talking," she said. "And I'm going to feed you personally!"

For the rest of the day she nursed the old man finding comfort in having someone to tend to. But when night fell she knew he was sicker than she had thought. She knew he would not live. His heart was weak with age.

All night she sat up with him talking so that he would not feel alone. She told him all about her youth and her husband and her children and it comforted him. And as she spoke she felt the burden of bitterness lift from her heart as it had not done in three years.

At dawn, just before the old man died he called her close and spoke in a whisper so low that she could scarcely hear him.

"I believe that you are the good Samaritan whom I have never before found," "I know I am dying but I am doing so with renewed hope and happiness. May you make others as happy as you have made me, my angel of mercy."

Then he died with her holding his hand and the sadness she felt was mingled with a happiness of renewed hope and faith.

Miss Sadie was well.

JUST AS GOOD

An old woman married a man even older than herself. One day she met the rector, who inquired why she had married again, and if she had now given up her occupation of washing.

"Oh, no sir," she said, pointing to her husband, who was wheeling a barrow a few paces away. "If I didn't married 'e, I'd 'ad to 'ave bought a donkey."

Exports Increasing

High Quality Of English Growth Orchids Is Creating Large Market

The first English orchids to be purchased by Australia since the war were despatched from the Port of London recently. United Kingdom growers are rapidly becoming the leading exporters of orchids in the world. At present they are being imported with a steady flow of overseas orders, especially from the U.S.

One spectacular order, placed by U.S.A. businessmen earlier this year, was for 2,000 plants valued at £20,000. The steady increase in exports of English orchids is attributed by growers to the high quality and hardness of home-grown varieties.

A consignment of orchids often takes years to collect as the time taken to grow a successful blooming hybrid is considerable.

Hard To Understand

Why People Take Such Desperate Chances To Save Few Seconds

Time being what it is, and man's span of the approximate measure of 70 years, what is the urge which forces some people to press on the seconds at the "rush" hours of a city's traffic? Why is one second between five p.m. and six p.m. of any greater importance than the same measure of human time at any other hour of the day? Yet, the scramble to save that second in the rush hour gives this community—and every other one of comparative size in Canada—its main crop of accidents, near accidents, fits, starts and bad turns.

THEY KNOW CANADA

Our Governors General Always Get Well Acquainted With This Dominion

High on the list of those who have a deep affection for Canada are a group of men, past and present, who have been merely temporary residents in this Dominion. These are our Governors General. Most of them, after a short time here, have become the most enthusiastic boosters for this country.

The reason, of course, is obvious. The Governors General see and know Canada. It is part of their job to travel across the Dominion, not once but several times during their terms of office. Their appreciation of our many advantages rests on intelligent familiarity with them.

Not everyone, of course, can see so much of the country, but too many of our citizens neglect opportunities to familiarize themselves even with the parts they could easily visit.

Others, with the means to travel quite as extensively as the Governors General, prefer to spend their time and money in other climes. It is too bad that more of our people are not put under an obligation similar to that imposed on the Viceroy to get about in their native land.

Dominion Bureau Of Statistics Gives Average Rates

OTTAWA.—New increases in average farm wage rates were reported by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The average rates for Canada in August were $4.04 a day and $75.26 a month with board as compared with rates of $3.55 a day and $71.68 a month reported at Aug. 15, 1945.

The Untouchables

Are Not Allowed To Associate With Even Low Caste Hindus

In India, according to an ancient legend, Hindus are descended from Brahma, the creator. The Brahmins or highest caste rose from his mouth, the Kshatriyas from his shoulders, the Vaisyas from his thighs, and the Sudras or lowest caste from his feet. The legend omits the fifth group of Hindus, India's 70,000,000 Untouchables. These are descended from the Dravidians who inhabited southern India and became converted to Hinduism. Because the new converts were of a different darker-skinned race they were regarded as an inferior people with whom Hindus were forbidden to mingle. Today, in most sections of India, Untouchables are not permitted to enter schools or temples, they can work at only the most menial of jobs.
